

'Beginning to understand me and others'

I know the qualities that make a good friend.

I can begin to understand the ways that I am unique and begin to understand that others may be different.

I can explore the ideas of 'fairness, right and kind'.

'Taking part and belonging'

I can understand how rules protect myself and others,

I know what is meant by the words 'respect' and 'bully',

I am aware of how things can improve or harm the local environment.

'Learning about money'

I can recognise common British currency and understand its value,

I can understand the difference between needs and wants

I can make basic decisions about spending.

PSHE – KS1

Curriculum Map

'Knowing what to do'

I can name some feelings and know who to speak to at home and at school if I am worried.

I am aware of school and class rules and routines.

'Keeping safe and healthy'

I can identify and carry out various actions that I can take to keep myself in better long term health.

I can identify where I feel safe.

I can explain how and where to cross a road safely.

'Growing and caring for ourselves'

I can describe my feelings to others,

I understand the importance of personal hygiene,

I can describe different family members and ways they can help each other.